

CACUBO

CENTRAL ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY BUSINESS OFFICERS

Membership Benefits

- Professional development and leadership opportunities
- Relevant, current resources and best practices
- Collegial relationships; peer-to-peer sharing; networking
- Affordable CPE credits
- Business Partners focused on higher education needs
- NACUBO advocacy and support

Professional Development

CACUBO provides professional development opportunities and leadership training for all levels of staff in business and financial management. Events are held periodically throughout the year:

Annual Meeting
Leadership Institute
Winter Workshop
Higher Education Accounting Workshop
Webinars

Volunteer

CACUBO is a volunteer-led, committee-based association. Volunteer opportunities exist in the following areas:

- Administrative
 - Audit
 - Member Relations & Communications
- Central Services/Coordinators
 - Database
 - Marketing and Communications
 - Website
 - Registration
 - Best Practices
 - CPE
- Professional Development Committees
 - Annual Meeting Program
 - Annual Meeting Host
 - Higher Education Accounting
 - Leadership Institute
 - Professional Development
 - Winter Workshop

(Visit the CACUBO website for more information: cacubo.org)

Mission

CACUBO serves higher education business and finance professionals by providing opportunities for professional and personal development and facilitating collegial relationships and networks resulting in improved management within our member institutions. CACUBO promotes ethical behavior, innovation and, through our relationships with NACUBO, advocacy for higher education.

Values

Integrity

Excellence

Innovation

Community

Enrichment

Overview

CACUBO members include institutions, large and small, public and private, from community colleges to small independents to large research. As one of four regional associations, CACUBO has access to a wealth of expertise and information including the vast resources of NACUBO, a Washington, D.C. based national office well known for its professional presentation of the needs and interests of higher education.